

Banning the LTTE -

Its impact on the Tamil-Canadian community and the peace process in Sri Lanka

A PUBLIC FORUM

Putting a ban - "listing" - on the LTTE in Canada seems, on the surface, to solve certain problems for Canadians.

But what it really does is undermine the Sri Lankan community in Canada. It also scuttles the peace process in Sri Lanka.

Come to our community forum and find out what's really going on in the aftermath of the Canadian government's ban on the LTTE.

- • AMINA SHIRAZEE
- • Lawyer, University of Toronto
- • Community Legal Clinic

- • SHARRYN AIKEN
- • Professor, Queen's University,
- • Law Faculty

- • FRANCISCO RICO-MARTINEZ
- • Co-Director
- • FCJ Refugee Centre

- • P.A. JEYAHARAN
- • Tamil Resource Centre

- • And ACTIVISTS from
- • the Sri Lankan community

- • MODERATED BY
- • APARNA SUNDAR
- • Asian Solidarity Network

Saturday, 24 June, 2006
5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
Scarborough Civic Centre

150 Borough Drive
North-west corner of
McCowan Road and Ellesmere Road

For more information, please email
asntoronto@gmail.com

LTTE = Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam

Produced by volunteer union labour

SPONSORED BY
Asian Solidarity Network & Tamil Resource Centre